- 8.1 Each of the Parties shall only be entitled to terminate the Agreement if the Other Party imputably fails to perform material obligations under the Agreement - in all cases, after having received a proper written notice of default which is as detailed as possible and in which it has been given a reasonable time period to remedy the breach.
- 8.2 If an Agreement that by its nature and content is not brought to a close is entered into for an indefinite period of time, this may be terminated in writing by each of the Parties after proper consultation and with a statement of reasons. If the Parties have not agreed on an express notice period, a reasonable notice period must be observed in terminating the Agreement.
- 8.3 FashionUnited eBusiness shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement in part or in full, with immediate effect, in writing without notice of default and without judicial intervention, if the Client is granted a moratorium of payments, provisionally or otherwise, if a petition for bankruptcy is filed in respect of the Client, or if the Client's company is wound up or terminated for reasons other than reconstruction or the merger of companies. FashionUnited eBusiness shall under no circumstances be obliged to pay any compensation as a result of a termination of the Agreement.
- 8.4 If the Client has already received services for the purpose of executing the Agreement at the time of termination as referred to in Article 8.1, these services and the related payment obligation cannot be revoked unless the Client is able to demonstrate that FashionUnited eBusiness is in default in respect of these services. Any amounts that FashionUnited eBusiness has invoiced before termination in connection with Work that it has already duly carried out or services that it has duly provided for the purpose of executing the Agreement, shall remain due in full, subject to due observance of the provisions of the preceding sentence, and shall become immediately due and payable at the time of termination.

Any such increases may only be passed on to the Client if it has been notified accordingly before the date that the increase takes effect. If the announced price increase is more than ten percent, the Client is entitled to terminate the Agreement with immediate effect.
- 10.5 If no fixed fee has been agreed, the fee shall be determined on the basis of the number of days actually spent during Normal working days and/or Normal working hours. The fee shall be calculated in accordance with FashionUnited eBusiness's usual daily rates, valid for the period in which the Work is being undertaken, unless a deviating hourly rate has been agreed upon. In the event that (parts of the) Work take less time to complete than a standard half-day of four hours, as a result of the Client's fragmented schedule, FashionUnited eBusiness shall be entitled to apply a surcharge, equal to ten percent of the daily rate. If Work is to be undertaken outside Normal working days and/or Normal working hours, FashionUnited eBusiness shall apply special charges, to be agreed in advance on a case-by-case basis.

- 10.6 Any cost estimates are exclusive of VAT, travel expenses and travel time that falls outside the normal commuting time, as well as travel time and expenses for commuting journeys in excess of one hundred kilometres.

- 11.4 All payments must be made without discount or setoff.

12. Liability

- 12.1 FashionUnited eBusiness accepts liability to pay damages to the extent as shown by Article 12.

The total compensation for direct loss shall not, however, in any case exceed four hundred and fifty thousand euros. „Direct loss“ shall solely mean:
- the reasonable expenses which the Client would have to incur to have FashionUnited eBusiness's performance fulfil the Agreement; however, such loss shall not be made good if the Client has terminated the Agreement;
 - the reasonable expenses which the Client would have to incur to establish the cause and the extent of the damage, in so far said establishment relates to damage within the meaning of the present terms and conditions;

- 12.3 FashionUnited eBusiness shall never be liable for indirect damage, including consequential damage, loss of profit, lost savings and damage due to business stagnation.
- 12.4 Apart from the cases mentioned in Article 12.2, no liability in any damages shall attach to FashionUnited eBusiness irrespective of the ground on which any action for damages would be based.
- 12.5 FashionUnited eBusiness shall only be liable as a result of an attributable failure in the performance of an Agreement if the Client gives FashionUnited eBusiness immediate and proper notice of default in writing, setting a reasonable term in which the breach can be remedied, and FashionUnited eBusiness still attributably fails to meet its obligations after this period. The notice of default must specify the failure in as much detail as possible, enabling FashionUnited eBusiness to issue an adequate response.
- 12.6 A condition for the existence of any right to compensation shall in all cases be that the Client notifies FashionUnited eBusiness in writing of the loss or damage as soon as possible after it occurs.
- 12.7 The limitations of liability for direct loss contained in the present terms and conditions shall not apply if the damage is due to any intentional act or omission or gross negligence on the part of FashionUnited eBusiness or its subordinates.
